RICHARD "LANE" PETERS

Senior

Lane could be described as a dedicated son, brother, and friend who was intelligent beyond his years. He took pride in being an amateur Jeep mechanic, as well as passionately demonstrating his commitment to Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu through coaching and competition. He loved to work with and teach people, showing the utmost care for everyone around him. As his family said, the lyrics of the Lynyrd Skynyrd song, "Simple Man," embody the character of Lane — an extraordinary person that effortlessly followed a good path. We miss you Lane!!
